Winemaker’s Comments
Inviting aromas of blackberry and a bouquet of hazelnut from French oak aging are followed by juicy flavors of ollalieberry on the palate. Petite Sirah is known for bold astringency and the 2014 Tower Road doesn’t disappoint.

—Steve Peck, red winemaker

Food Pairings
Pairs well with aromatic herbs and pan-seared meat dishes such as rosemary lamb chops with roasted fennel.

Wine List Description
Bold flavors of blackberry with a French oak barrel signature.

APPELLATION: Paso Robles AVA, San Luis Obispo County, CA
COMPOSITION (BLEND): 95% Petite Sirah, 3% Syrah, 2% Grenache
MATURATION: 16 months barrel age
CELLARING: This dense wine opens up early with a splash-decant, and should develop in the bottle for up to 8 years.
CASES PRODUCED: 9,634 six-bottle cases