Winemaker’s Comments
An inviting bouquet of lightly toasted pastry frames the dark fruit characters of blackberry and olallieberry on the palate. Our gentle approach to winemaking delivers a rich and dense tannin structure that doesn’t disappoint.

—Steve Peck, director of winemaking

Food Pairings
Pairs well with aromatic herbs and pan-seared meat dishes such as rosemary lamb chops with roasted fennel.

Wine List Description
Lightly toasted pastry aromas with rich blackberry and olallieberry fruit notes.
